WEST HARTFORD — — The winners of the West Hartford Art League's "CT+6" exhibit will be announced on Sunday, April 14, at an opening reception that is open to the public.

The exhibit is called CT+6 because it features artists from Connecticut and six other states – New York, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts and Rhode Island. The juried show was started in 2008, according to a news release from the Art League.

More than 450 entries were submitted, according to the release. Jurors Nancy Stuart, dean of the Hartford Art School, and Jane Lund, an artist, chose 105 pieces in various mediums for the exhibit, which runs in the League's two galleries through May 19.

The "Best of Show" winner will receive $1,000 in cash and his or her own exhibit at the League. Other prizes will be awarded during the reception, which will be held in the Clubhouse Gallery, 37 Buena Vista Road, beginning at 2 p.m.
